Von Hippel-Lindau disease: delayed presentation as a cerebellar haemangioblastoma in an elderly patient.

Shekhar H, Myles L, Lee M.

Department of Neurosurgery, James Cook University Hospital, Middlesbrough, UK. h.shekhar@yahoo.co.uk

Cerebellar haemangioblastomas are rare in the elderly. Those associated with the von Hippel-Lindau (VHL) disease, usually present during the third decade of life. We report an unusually delayed presentation in an 80 year old obligate carrier of VHL gene mutation.

Publication Types:
- Case Reports

PMID: 19234919 [PubMed - indexed for MEDLINE]