[A rare case of glioblastoma metastasis to the lung].

[Article in Russian]
Razmogolova OIu, Sokolova TV.

Abstract
The paper describes a case of metastatic glioblastoma in a 64-year-old woman who died in the early postoperative period after tumor removal. Lung metastases were diagnosed at autopsy. The tumor invading the superior sagittal sinus, a large venous reservoir shunting blood to the superior vena cava, was a factor contributing to extracranial extraneural hematogenous dissemination of the tumor in this case.

PMID: 24313190 [PubMed - indexed for MEDLINE]